C&F Gives Back
Community Report

C&F is proud to call Virginia home. We have always believed that a strong local community benefits everyone and it's why we are so committed to actively supporting all that we serve. I'm proud of the many C&F teammates who give time and talent to make Virginia a better place to live and work.

Thomas F. "Tom" Cherry
President and CEO
C&F Financial Corporation

Raised to help families in need
Nearly volunteered 100 hours to help build homes across the state

Volunteered to help build two wheelchair ramps for citizens in Richmond
Donated $5,000 towards new ramps

Having volunteers assist with all sorts of jobs allows our team the ability to focus on the customers in the store. Customer focus leads to increased sales, which in turn leads to more money for our home-building and repair programs. Thank you for your time, energy and giving spirit!

Gina Gay, Assistant Manager & Volunteer Coordinator
Habitat for Humanity, across Virginia

On behalf of our recipients and the RampsRVA Board, thank you to C&F Bank for the generous financial gift. I also want to thank the awesome employees that gave their time to build two wheelchair ramps. Their efforts have given the freedom of mobility to two more people.

Barry McDonald, Director of Operations
RampsRVA, Richmond

Bennett’s Village is grateful to C&F Bank, not only for this donation that brings us one step closer to meeting our $100,000 matching grant, but also for their continued partnership. Banking with C&F has been easy and it’s comforting to know that our fundraising dollars are in good hands. Community partners like C&F are an integral part of bringing this multigenerational, all-abilities play space to Charlottesville.

Yuki Weaver, Board Chair
Bennett’s Village, Charlottesville

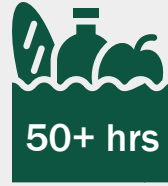

Donated by C&F employees and customers to aid Bennett’s Village, supporting their mission to building safe, all-inclusive playgrounds for the Charlottesville community.

Non-perishable food items collected

Volunteered at the food bank warehouse

Many of us are one missed paycheck or car payment away from complete chaos and an unwanted lifestyle change, and even in those tough circumstances we all have the capacity to help others in a variety of ways. Ultimately, we are not defined by our circumstances, but we are defined by how we respond to someone else's circumstances. Give Forward! Thank you C&F for your donation and volunteer efforts!

Dominique Thomas, Volunteer Coordinator
Fredericksburg Regional Food Bank, Fredericksburg

Yvonne is a very happy and social young woman. She enjoys going to see her friends, new and interesting things and going on Nest field trips.

Travis is an energetic young adult who enjoys sports (mainly football, baseball & NASCAR) & spending time in the community with friends & family. His outgoing nature is quickly discovered by new acquaintances and he'll quickly capture your phone number for a subsequent call or text. Surrounded by family & faith, Travis carves out his own version of normal & has to be reminded of his disability & reliance upon a wheelchair. Time in the workshop painting or landing baseball frogs fills any time that's not already consumed by daily interests & outings. His smartphone is his best friend but he completely understands it's only a phone and can't bring lasting relationships that he has come to cherish. Whether it's singing Sweet Caroline in the winning of the Red Sox home game, or commemorating with fellow Cowbirds, being in the first round of the playoffs, he cherishes relationships and experiences such as the many opportunities Nest Academy of RVA offers.

Nest provides a program after high school for young adults with complex disabilities to experience fun and exciting classroom and outdoor activities like boating and rock climbing. Nest is extremely grateful for community partners like C&F Bank and C&F Mortgage, who provide volunteer resources to allow nonprofits like Nest to continue to grow and fill a void in the RVA Community.

Nora Carroll, Founder & Executive Director Nest Academy, Richmond

Volunteered doing administrative tasks and assembling tote bags
$1,000 donated to support Nest Academy RVA with their mission

Pet food, toys, and warm blankets collected to help shelter animals

Raised in addition to nearly 80 volunteer hours

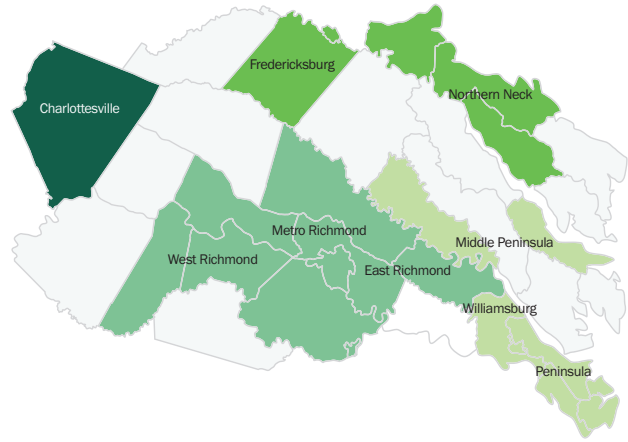

The Peninsula Regional Animal Shelter is honored to be in a partnership with C&F Bank and is beyond blessed that they chose us to be a part of the C&F Gives Back initiative. The donations collected by C&F employees will provide much needed mental stimulation and nourishment to all of our animals in need. We appreciate the immense support given to our employees and our animals by this generous organization.

Krista Smith, Program Coordinator
Peninsula Regional Animal Shelter, Newport News
